The accommodation comprises

Barn Farm Cottage situated on the fringes of the village of North Fambridge which lies on the north bank of the River Crouch, part of the Dengie peninsula.

The village offers commuters a rail link to London Liverpool Street Station and has the North Fambridge Yacht Club and Bar and a Public House/restaurant with accommodation.

The area is well known for Blue House Farm nature reserve and wildlife trust and lies within a larger site of special scientific interest, Crouch and Roach Estuaries.

Barn Farm Cottage located on Lower Burnham Road offers a superb plot of approximately 1.029 acres which back and side on to open farm land.

The property originated as a cottage and has been extended throughout the years to offer a detached three bedroom home with a THREE BEDROOM STATIC HOME/ANNEXE, IDEAL FOR DUAL LIVING OR SIMILAR.

The rooms are totally versatile in their use and the new owners may very well configure differently to suit their own requirements.

The ground floor offers an entrance porch, kitchen/breakfast room, dining room, study, lounge, rear porch, utility room and a cloakroom/w.c.

The first floor has three double bedrooms with the principal room having an en-suite and family bathroom.

The grounds which are majority to lawn have a wooden garage with adjoined storage sheds, a 34 ft x 10'8 ft work shop and summer house.
